

The Zionist Organization of America and San Diego congregations invite you to Israel and the Palestinians: Is Peace Possible?

a talk by

MORTON KLEIN

NATIONAL PRESIDENT OF THE
ZIONIST ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA

The Israeli daily newspaper Ma'ariv calls the ZOA "the most important organization in the American Jewish community today." Klein has been named one of the top five Jewish leaders in America.

- 1) Thursday, March 18, 7:30 p.m.: Adat Ami/Beth Tefilah
123 Camino de La Reina, Suite N100 (Mission Valley across from the Union/Tribune)
- 2) Friday, March 19, 8:00 p.m.: Beth Israel Congregation
2512 3rd Ave. (at Laurel), San Diego
- 3) Saturday, March 20, 8:30 p.m.: Beth Jacob Cong.
4855 College Ave., San Diego
- 4) Sunday morning, March 21, 8:30 A.M.: Cong. Beth Am
5050 Black Mountain Road, San Diego

- ADMISSION FREE -

For information, please call the San Diego District of the ZOA at (619) 459-0359 or (619) 546-1361

Also come to a Gala Brunch honoring Mr. Klein for his extraordinary work on behalf of Israel. He will speak on the topic Whose Jerusalem Is It?

Sunday, March 21, 1999 at 11:00 A.M. at Mira Mesa Branch Library, San Diego.

Please call to receive a formal invitation with details or to make reservations, starting at $30.